MARIN FIFTH GRADERS CLEAN UP ALBANY HILL

Twenty-seven fifth graders at Marin school have adopted Albany Hill as their project to clean up at regular intervals.

Some local residents apparently have been using the hill as their private garbage dump, leaving trash, papers and even large plastic bags full of refuse in the hill area.

Wednesday morning, Oct. 21, the children hiked to the hill and worked all morning on their cleanup project. After lunch there, they hauled huge sacks of garbage back to their school for disposal by Oakland Scavenger Co.

According to Mrs. Margaret Shepherd, teacher of the class, they hope to get some parents involved before they go back. A pickup would be of great assistance to the youngsters in their cleanup work.

"We'd like to make this a community project," Mrs. Shepherd said. She added there is erosion of the Albany Hill and they are considering a planting project to beautify the local landmark.

World Community Day Dinner Nov. 6

A World Community Day dinner and program will begin at 6:30 p.m. Friday at First Congregational church, Dana and Channing Way, Berkeley, sponsored by Berkeley-Albany Church Women United.

They will join other members in 50 states for the annual observance. Theme for 1970 is International Education. Mrs. Louise Stoltenberg, program administrator for University Christian church, will speak on "Use a Key for Tomorrow: Education."

This year's offering represents the first stage toward a five-year goal of providing 80 miles of books for children in other countries. Gift certificates valued at $3 each will be presented for a variety of programs, including Head Start children in the USA.

A musical program is also planned. Reservations may be made by calling 465-5925.

Oaks Carnival This Saturday

Everybody has fun at the carnival!

The Tilden Thousand Oaks Carnival will be held Saturday, Nov. 7, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Thousand Oaks school. It is an exciting family affair, with fun and food for all ages. Funds raised will be used for local PTA projects such as playground, library, and student welare.

There will be all the traditional carnival attractions — games of skill and chance, prizes, white elephants, plants, bakery, bazaar, snacks, and lunch. Also psychedelic face painting, a relatively new event, and this year there will be music and a puppet show.

Ralph Gray is the 1970 carnival chairman. Helping him "put it all together" are Hank Padgham, construction; Mrs. Larry Jones, music; Mrs. Meyer Scharlack, face painting; Mrs. Walter Rose, plants; Mrs. Clayton Roche, money; Mrs. Irvin Rautenberg, white elephants; Mrs. George Burnett, bakery; Mrs. Paul Bongfeld, bazaar; Mrs. David Brown, coffee and pop; Mrs. Edward Giacomini, games; Mrs. Lew Bell, art; Mrs. Richard Hall, snacks; and Mrs. Stanley Naparst, cafeteria.

'Noel Notions'

WSCS of Albany United Methodist church will sponsor its annual bazaar, "Noel Notions," at the church, 980 Stannage, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 14.

Luncheon will be served from 11:30 to 1:30. Adult tickets are $1.50; children under 12, $1.

Five Organizations Sponsor Tribble Appearance Here Thursday

Under the sponsorship of five Albany civic and educational associations, Ike Tribble, Jr., of the Mills College faculty, will speak at Albany High school Little Theater Nov. 5 at 7:30 p.m.

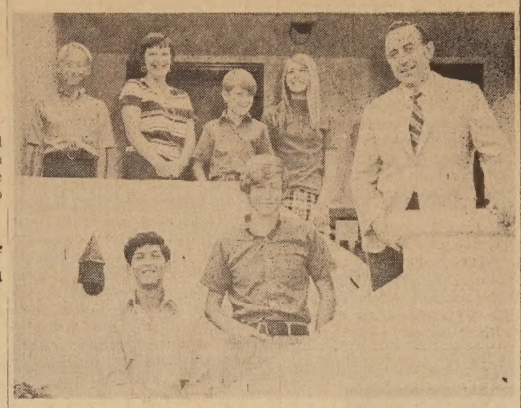

His subect, which will be a repeat by request of his previously acclaimed address to the Albany High Forum last spring, will be "One Black View on Education, History, and Ecology."

Tribble, a native of New Jersey, in addition to his duties as Special Assistant to the President of Mills, is Director of Upward Bound and an instructor in Black History. Upward Bound is a program at Mills designed for minority-low income high school students to raise their aspirational and educational level.

Co-sponsors of Tribble's program are Albany Teachers' association, Albany Human Relations committee, Albany Parent Nursery association, and Marin and MacGregor PTAs. There will be a panel representative of these organizations for questions and discussion.

The public is urged to attend and meet this dynamic young Bay Area educator.

New AFS Student

Guillermo Malqui of Peru Is AFS Student in Albany

His name is a real tongue twister, but Albany's newest American Field Service student breaks it down to "Geah Malkey" (the way his nickname and last name sound) and it doesn't seem so formidable.

Guillermo Malqui, 17, of Lima, Peru, is a senior at Albany High school and a stellar performer in Albany Soccer club, where he plays center, middle or wherever he is needed. He also belongs to the AFS club here and is an ex-officio member of the Board of Control.

Now living at 916 Pomona with the busy family of Chrys and Betty van Eckhardt, the youth is practicing English and becoming better every day. Although he had 11 years of English at home, it was out of a book and quite different from what he hears around Albany.

He left his druggist father, mother, brother and sister in Lima, arriving in New York for orientation on Aug. 17. His first experience with his new American family was a week's vacation at their cabin in Lassen National Forest.

His Albany family includes Chrys and Betty; Mike, 16, an 11th grader; Chrysti, 14, ninth grade; Larry, 11, sixth grade; Pieter, eight, fourth grade, plus Sophie, the dog; Benamin, the rabbit; Pewter, the cat, and two goldfish, known as "A" and "B."

Guillermot finds the U.S. more modern than his native country. At home, he attended a private school for about 1,500 students ranging from kindergarten through 12th grade. AHS has about 800 students, eighth through 12th grades.

TAXPAYERS, RENTERS INVITED TO MEETING

Del Wisenor, president of Albany Homeowners and Taxpayers association, has announced that AHTA is sponsoring a bi-county meeting.

Plans are proceeding for the formation of Alameda and Contra Costa counties diision of Nor-Cal Taxpayers Council, to be referred to in the future as NCTC, a statewide organization of taxpayers.

All homeowners, taxpayers associations and renters of each county are invited to attend and join, retaining their present "local status" as well as statewide representation in a non-partisan, non-profit volunteer organization of individual members.

"Learn what you can do to stop soaring taxes, reduce property taxes and rents, and prevent new taxing entities," Wisenor said.

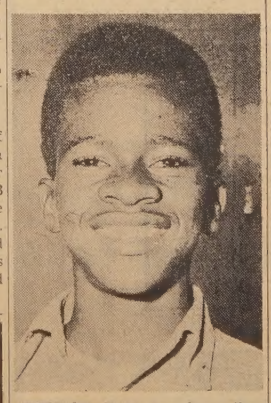

"Circle this date now on your calendar: Nov. 18. Place: Serb's Restaurant, 1045 San Pablo Ave., Albany, 7:30 p.m. Light refreshments will be served. Plenty of parking is available.

For further information call 836-3891, Alameda County chairman, or 526-6402, Albany Homeowners and Taxpayers association.

COUNCIL ZIPS THROUGH LONG AGENDA MONDAY

Although they stopped twice for picture-taking, Albany City Council zipped through an agenda including 13 communications in a little over an hour Monday night.

The backlog had accumulated during the past two weeks. There was no meeting Oct. 26 because of the League of California Cities meeting in San Diego.

Clark Dennett, secretary of Traffic and Safety commission, introduced winners of the recent Fire Prevention Essay contest from Marin and Cornell schools.

Webb Resigns

The resignation of Marty Webb from the Traffic and Safety commission was read and accepted with regret. The appointee of Councilman Lewis Howell, Webb has served five years on the commission, three as chairman. All councilmen expressed their appreciation for his efforts on behalf of Albany and wished him success in Berkeley. Howell said, "This is a loss to us and a gain for the City of Berkeley. . . ."

Councilman George Hein was absent. A notice concerning cost of hosting the Veterans' Day parade next November was held over one week because he is the Council's representative for planning the parade.

Several communications were filed or referred to department heads.

Albany's open space application was modified, parking changes at Max's Liquor Store, Hill Lumber and Airco-Viking were approved, the City of Long Beach resolution requesting utilization of surplus military aircraft in fighting forest fires was supported.

A request to relocate the "F" system bus stop was denied. Council voted to support the East Bay Regional Park district in its request to the next legislature to increase the tax rate by 10 cents next year.

There was some discussion of the position of Civil Service secretary. It was decided to meet at 7 p.m. next Monday with Park and Recreation Superintendent E. J. Rooney and members of the Civil Service commission.

Bicycles

Also discussed was the problem of bicycles on the sidewalk, again brought to Council attention by Harold Lindberg of 1282 Solano. The problem was referred to Police Chief Jensen and the School Board, but Webb, speaking as

Oaks Business Men Sponsor Halloween Program

For many years, 1000 Oaks Business and Professional association under the guidance of President Marty Webb, has carried on a fine Halloween program to the benefit and enjoyment of the school children in the area of Solano Avenue.

The traditional window-painting contest and parade of the children of Thousand Oaks school has allowed children to celebrate Halloween in a constructive manner.

To prepare for the mini-artists who will adorn the merchants windows with their impressions of Halloween, John Zoro, manager of the 1000 Oaks Variety-Hardware, headed a group of businessmen Wednesday evening, Oct. 28, with buckets of whitewash to surface windows for the onslaught of the children's chalk.

Painting of the windows by students from Thousand Oaks, Tilden Primary, and Martin Luther King, Jr. High schools was the morning of Oct. 29. Members of school PTAs judged the art work the same afternoon. Ribbons were given in several categories, with five $5 over-all grand awards.

Witches and goblins were the order Friday, Oct. 30, when teachers and children of Thousand Oaks school paraded the length of Solano Avenue from Ensenada to The Alameda in their Halloween costumes. The parade was led by a Berkeley Fire Department fire truck, Bob Elliot's Berkeley High school band, and the Bookmobile from Berkeley Library brought up the rear with its calliope type music.

chairman of the Traffic and Safety commission, said there has been much activity in the area of bicycle safety. Chief Jensen, he said, has spoken at the schools, the firemen have distributed literature with bicycle licenses and Lindberg had seemed satisfied. Webb said it is impossible to have a policeman on the sidewalk all day, suggested the Chamber of Commerce might insert a notice in its bulletin urging merchants who see bicycles on the sidewalk to ask youngsters to set them up against a building.

A letter from James William of Williams and Lane said the utility users' tax is fair, reasonable and equitable. He complimented the Council on its tax explanation and said Albany city government has exercised "excellent fiscal management."

The mayor was authorized to proclaim Nov. 11 as Veterans' Day in Albany.

My Word . . .

ANDREW BELL, 11-year-old Marin sixth grader, suffered a broken jaw last Thursday evening, when he was robbed while collecting on his Tribune route. Apparently a young adult male followed him, finally caught the youngster at the corner of Sonoma and Ordway, knocked him rown, ripped his jacket and took his wallet. Understandably outraged, Andrew gave chase, screaming at the thief. The man wheeled, hit the boy in the face and made his getaway in a car parked at Marin and Ordway. His parents, the Louis Bells of Santa Fe Avenue, were at a PTA meeting. They took Andrew to Kaiser, Oakland, where his jaw was wired shut and he was hospitalized until Monday. His folks and those who called to see how Andrew is doing.

MRS. JERRY (ESTELLE) WILLIAMS of Albany was flattered to hear that her "peace on earth" centerpiece was used at the recent Mayors' Conference in Union City. She has quite a flair for unusual decorations, including specialties for the Children's Hospital Exhibit teas at the Hotel Claremont. She was decoration chairman last year for California Department of VFW and has also produced colorful decorations and table settings for our local Elm branch, Native Daughters and VFW. Her husband is general chairman for the Veterans Day parade in Hayward.

THOUSAND OAKS Hardware-Variety, second largest Dutch Boy paint dealer north of Fresno to the Oregon border, has remodeled its already modern paint center. Now John Zoro and Jim Owenhouse have added a turquoise carpet, put in a walnut color gallery with formica top and bright orange stools and a new enclosed paint mix center. The mix center features the walnut and formica combination plus a long "bar" with old fashioned brass rail. They can mix more than 3,000 colors in this most modern paint center and still feature their own paint line.

ALTHOUGH it has been more than a year since we appealed for National Geographics for the Veterans' Home at Yountville, people still think Times when they think National Geographics. A Mrs. Walker came in last week and would like to give someone a collection of the magazines. It is not complete, but some date back to 1929. Seems schools or maybe the Senior Center would be interested. Call her at 525-4210 if you can put them to good use.

MISSED National Newspaper Week, Pickle Week and a few others, but may we wish all you cats out there a happy National Cat Week.

HALLOWEEN items go on and on. A group of Marin first graders went pumpkin hunting at Half Moon Bay before the big night. Understand they had a great time.

FAIRBANKS Daily Newsminer has already discovered what a great guy Harry Price is. Following a fire in the Lathrop school, of which he is principal, Harry called a meeting of parents to discuss, among other things, the problem of children smoking in the school. The paper editorializes: "Harry Price should be commended for his reasonable, careful approach to the idea and most of all he should be supported." He has suggested smoking areas where students of age would be permitted to smoke.

Married at Northbrae

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Fleig
(Penny Allison)

Rites at Northbrae Community church united in marriage Marina Penny-Lee (Penny) Allison and Ralph Allen Fleig, son of the Robert Fleigs of Downey.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jean E. Allison of El Cerrito and Robert W. Allison of Oakland.

Given in marriage by her father, she wore an all lace gown with skirt of tiers, bell sleeves, empire waist and brush train. Her full length veil of illusion was edged with matching lace and fell from a lace medieval-type hat. She carried a cascade of stephanotis and gardenias, centered with a white orchid and wore a locket her father had given her mother when they first met.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregg King of Chico were honor attendants. Mrs. King wore a mandarin orange empire gown with short sleeves and matching head bow. She carried a bouquet of orange carnations caught with a moss green ribbon.

Ushers were Chuck Kirby and David Derus, both of San Francisco.

About 75 guests attended the reception at the Town and Gown in Berkeley. The bride's mother wore a turquoise gown with white orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom wore mint green with similar corsage.

Following a wedding trip, the couple is at home in Oakland.

The bride, a 1967 graduate of El Cerrito High school, attended junior college and Armstrong college. She is employed in Fremont. Her husband, a 1962 graduate of Downey High school, spent six years in the armed services. He is attending the Police Academy in San Francisco.

Seven relatives of the bride, including her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Karen McLellan, came from Vancouver, B.C., for the wedding. A cousin, Melanie Thompson, distributed rice favors. Another, Suzanne Thompson, presided at the guest book and played the piano during the reception.

Walnut Creek Girl To Wed M.D. Klobas

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Shaw of Walnut Creek have announced the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen Gayle, to Michael Duane Klobas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Klobas of Albany.

Kathy attended Lafayette schools, was a member of the 1967 class of Del Valle High school, and is presently a senior at Cal State, Hayward. Mike was graduated from Albany High school in 1965, from Merritt Junior College in 1967, and received his B.S. degree from California State College at Hayward in 1969. He is employed by the U.S. Treasury Department in Oakland.

David Kaiser Home

David Kaiser, 1968 graduate of Albany High, who has spent the past two years in the U.S. Navy, is here visiting his parents the remainder of this week. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gerhardt, former Albany residents, now live in Berkeley. David will visit relatives in Denver and Phoenix before reporting back to duty in San Diego, where he will be stationed at least temporarily. He has another two years of duty.

Pueblo Crewman Speaks in EC Friday

Pueblo crewman Lee R. Hayes, who spent 11 months as a prisoner of the North Korean communists, will address a public audience Nov. 6 at 8 p.m. at El Cerrito Community Center, 7007 Moeser Lane, El Cerrito. His subject will be "Remember the Pueblo."

Hayes was chief radioman aboard the USS Pueblo when it was hi-jacked by the communist forces. His strategic position at the time of the indicent enables Hayes to speak with authority about what took place and what subsequently happened to the crew of the Pueblo while they were held captive in North Korea.

According to Lee Hayes, the Pueblo was more than 15 miles away from the nearest land when it was attacked by communist gun boats. "We were never within the 12-mile limit of North Korea," he says. Hayes also charges that no help was given the Pueblo while it was under bombardment.

"For 1½ hours," Hayes explains, "we were under Communist attack. During that time we were in constant contact with nearby American forces, begging for help—help that was only 15 minutes flying time away. But no help was given."

The men of the USS Pueblo were held prisoner by the communists for 11 months. "Threats and beatings," says Hayes, "were a daily occurrence, and we always wondered if America had forgotten us."

"When we were released," Hayes adds, "the communists gloated that they would capture the United States as easily as they had captured our ship, and they boasted that their revolution in this country had already begun."

This program is one in a series of lectures sponsored by East Bay Tact committees. Local members of the educational committee include Frank Cortese, Jim Boyd, Ralph Bowman, and Jim Hicks.

For further information regarding this meeting or on the committee, please call 232-1796 or write Box 689, El Cerrito 94530.
